

THE KENTUCKY CONSTABLE ASSOCIATION, INC
CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS

REVISED AND ADOPTED

2007

CONSTABLE'S CODE OF ETHICS

As an elected and appointed public servant, sworn to carry out the constitutional responsibilities of the position of Constable:

I shall dutifully carry out the duties of my office.

I shall, at all times, function without prejudice or regard for an individual's race, religion, or place of birth.

I shall never be a part of an attempt to inhibit or evade the law.

I shall at all times act in a manner in which understanding and justice is communicated to those with whom I come into contact in my work.

I shall conduct my private life unblemished and mindful of others.

I shall be courteous and maintain self-restraint.

I shall be a part of the professional organization designed to protect and upgrade the performance of the Constable.

I shall not personally solicit for funds in the performance of my work to enhance any organization.

I shall seek every opportunity for such training as will enhance my ability to do a better job.

I recognize my badge of authority as a symbol of the public trust and I recognize that as law enforcement officer, I shall never bring disgrace upon the people, whose faith and confidence elected me as their Constable.

I recognize my duty to protect the constitutional rights of all people.

I shall at all times wear appropriate attire and the necessary equipment to carry out my responsibilities.

I shall never speak with criticism of my fellow Constable except at the appropriate forum provided by an appropriate Constable' organization.

I shall never knowingly infringe upon the operation of another Constable.

I shall never resort to unnecessary force in the performance of my duties.

I shall not accept gratuities offered by anyone employing my service.

I shall perform my duties expeditiously and promptly, and I shall transmit an immediate report to those whose work I have accepted.

I shall strive to adhere to the aforementioned as long as I shall serve as Constable.

AIMS AND PURPOSES OF THE ASSOCIATION

To maintain a close and positive working relationship with all other law enforcement agencies.

To establish and maintain an organization of elected and appointed Constables to present a strong, united, and professional approach to all matters of concern to the Constable.

To upgrade the quality of performance of the Constable through education and training programs.

To urge our best efforts for the Constable to become actively involved in civic, community organizations and activities.

To protect and upgrade the legislated duties and responsibilities of Constables and to maintain a vigilance in protecting the security and statute of the Constable.

The directors, officers, and members of The Kentucky Constable Association fully realize their obligation to improve the status and role of the Constable in delivery of the criminal justice system.
